Main Areas of Work

- Rag Conference
 - Attended National Rag Conference 2010 in Kent
 - Took along some of committee as delegates
 - Met with lots of other Rags from all over the country, swapped ideas and contacts
 - Attended seminars on various aspects of student fundraising, from promotion and media to going on to jobs in the charity sector
 - Attended charity fair at which we were able to meet reps from lots of different charities and discuss raids/events for this year
 - Won awards!! One for Best Large Rag, and another new award (introduced this year in memory of Iain Elliott from Menigitis Research Foundation who sadly passed away in March) for collecting the most for MRF this year, for which we received a trophy and £500 for our Rag. 2009/10 Chair Jamie Oliver also won the Rag Fellowship Award.
- Rag Mag
 - Finishing writing all the text for the magazine and sourcing pictures
 - Securing advertising
 - Sending artwork/info to designer
 - Going to print on Wednesday so getting last few bits together!
- Caudwell Children London Raid
 - Monday night to Wednesday night this week
 - Collected with a group of seven volunteers in the underground
 - Made over £900
- Meeting with The Bridge
 - Joint Rag/Action meeting with Adam and charity rep from The Bridge, homeless centre in Loughborough

- Discussed ways in which both sections could work with them, interesting ideas including that of volunteers partaking in activity for both sections by fundraising with Rag for the centre and then volunteering with Action to put the money to use/see its benefits, seeing full cycle.
- Meeting with the Red Cross
 - Meeting with our regional rep from the British Red Cross
 - Discussed details for upcoming collections with them next week and in October
 - Asked for any other ways we can collect for Pakistan – possible other local collections and supermarket collections too
- Meeting with Tony from the Santa Fun Run Committee
 - Discussed details for this year's SFR
 - How Rag can help – volunteers, lending our gazebo, advertising around halls and campus, stall at Choose A Challenge
 - Sorted out details for their page/advert in the Rag Mag
- Planning Rag Week Hey Ewe
 - Meeting with Matt Nunn to discuss theme for this event
 - Decided on 'Wear It Pink' to coincide with other Breast Cancer Campaign events in Rag Week, bold colour theme with easy fancy dress
 - Discussing ways to make the evening more exciting, including decorations, activities and hopefully a P!nk tribute act!
- Meetings with Rag Committee members re: next term and event ideas
 - Met with events co-ordinators and secretary to discuss potential new events to introduce this year
- Meeting with Practical Action
 - Met with Jamie from Practical Action to go over plans for this year's Escape and Evade, which they are running with us.
 - New tracking software to be used which will improve efficiency and allow participants to text straight in to a live update map on the website

Other Areas of Work

- Meeting/Echo photo with Jenny Ardley, who we are sponsoring flyers for to help her charity drive to help babies with colic – article published in this week's paper
- Experience The World project team
- Planning and setting dates for Rag Committee Training
- Attending Training for Trainers sessions
- Exec video planning/lyric writing
- Camera 3 for LSUTV live broadcast for Freshers' Week line up!
- Attending Interview Skills training session

- Swapping college tins over (new ones collecting for DEC Pakistan Appeal) and bringing tins to the brand new art shop in the School of the Arts
- Attending Innovation Sub-Committee meeting
- Emails/phonecalls etc.
- Gibbo's mile booking – awaiting final confirmation
- Leicester Raid organisation – promoting/recruiting for this, liaising with Tas about promoting to international/pre-sessional students
- Finding potential marathon places – KIDS suggested they may have some
- Booking us onto the Christie's megaraid in Manchester during Rag Week
- Looking at options for Rag Committee stash – choosing which jackets to order

Aims from Last Report

- Finish Rag Mag – almost there, last few bits to send to designer before print on Wednesday
- Finish Strategic Plan – Ongoing
- Finalise Rag Week plans – Finalised Hey Ewe and raids, and Gibbo Mile now within Rag Week

Aims for Next Report

- Rag Mag to print
- Successful Leicester collections
- Finish strat plan and continue events planning for next term
