

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas...

Grab your Advent Calendars, Mulled Wine and tacky Santa hats as Christmas has already hit the streets of Loughborough! Though Christmas isn't just about bad costumes, alcohol and getting free stuff... I'm only joking, I know it is! So here's what SocFed has got in store for you:

Santa Fun Run—Sunday 5th December

Ever wanted to see hundreds of Santas running around Campus for charity? Well come along to make that dream a reality!

Societies Showcase Winter Wonderland! - Tuesday 13th December

Global and SocFed have joined together to put on a massive event in Room 1! They'll be 3 stages for societies to perform on, Cocktails, International food, Mulled Wine, Mince Pies, costume competitions—and all for FREE! Everyone that attends also gets in free for Stupid Tuesday so you have no reason not to come along and show support to your fellow Societies! DVDs of the performance will also be available after the show.

Societies of the Week

28th Nov— 4th Dec

5th— 11th Dec

12th-18th Dec

15 minutes of fame...

After much hard work and anticipation, Gospel Choir, Breakdancing, Hip-hop, DJ, Tux swing and LSU dance stole the show when Children in Need came to Loughborough University to help raise money for charity!

The music, singing and percussion were played to perfection as Breakdancing and Hip-hop joined forces to put on one hell of a show as their kicks, flips and spins left the audience in awe. Our AU friends LSU Dance performed an elegant medley of dance styles as they combined the classic with the modern in their breath-taking show.

Well done to all who got involved, particularly Nicholas and Lyndsey for their relentless efforts to make the show perfect; it truly paid off!
